U.S. Envoy Urges Khrush To Release 2 Yank Fliers

MOSCOW (AP)—U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson talked with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today about two U.S. fliers held prisoner by the Soviet Union since their RB47 plane was shot down more than two months ago. The Soviet leader was preparing to depart by ship for a session of the U. N. General Assembly in New York.

"We discussed matters of interest to both governments," Thompson told reporters after his 90-minute talk with Khrushchev, "including the detention of two RB47 fliers."

President Eisenhower said in Washington Wednesday that one prerequisite for any meeting he might have with the Soviet premier would be release of the two airmen, held prisoner since their plane was shot down July 1.

Khrushchev, for his part, made it clear that he still thinks President Eisenhower should apologize for the U2 flight of May 1.

Thompson declined to go into details about today's talk but reporters gained the impression that he made little progress in the newest effort to free Lt. Freeman Olmstead of Elmira, N. Y., and Lt. John McKone of Tonganoxie, Kan. The Soviets have announced they will be tried for espionage.

The Soviet premier is going to New York aboard the 7,494-ton ship Baltika—called the Vyacheslav Molotov before Molotov fell into disfavor several years ago. Leaders of Soviet-linked countries in Eastern Europe may join Khrushchev for a Communist summit meeting aboard the ship in New York. All of them also are going to the Assembly.

Khrushchev may get away Friday.

The disclosure that Premier Khrushchev plans to stay at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel during his United Nations visit brought out a ticket line Wednesday night.

About 100 persons paraded in front of the hotel with anti-Communist placards.

They were not on hand this morning, but another demonstration is scheduled Sunday.

The placards bore messages such as:

"Killer Khrushchev insulted our President. Don't give him shelter."

"Murderers belong in Sing Sing, not in the Waldorf."

Organizations represented in the demonstration included the American Hungarian Federation, the Chinese Student Association, the Serbian-American and the Hungarian Freedom Fighters.

Sixty-five policemen stood by. Khrushchev is due to arrive Sept. 19 aboard the Soviet ship Baltika.

Where the ship will dock appeared uncertain.

One rumor was that the ship might dock or moor in the East River near the United Nations building, but Coast Guard and other officials said this would not be possible.

"Financial support of these institutions should be as much as possible a joint public and private enterprise with both federal and state governments participating on one hand and universities private industry, and foundations on the other. The federal funds should be made available on a matching basis with state and private contributions."

Nixon said that the Soviets lead today in the development of high thrust rockets, but that "overall in the field of science, we are well ahead of the Soviet Union."

Nixon cautioned against complacency, however, saying that to stay ahead, the United States must move ahead by giving creative men and women freedom to explore and encouraging and backing them.

Dick Proposes Aid to Science

Research Needed To Counteract Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon says the United States must provide the facilities, the opportunity and the freedom for exploration by "the scientist with the vaulting imagination."

To meet the Soviet challenge in science, he proposes government sponsorship of a major new program for basic research, calling for federal matching funds for university operation of cooperative programs across the country.

Nixon discussed "the scientific revolution" in the second of a series of papers, released Wednesday night, aimed at giving his views in depth on various subjects. The first, dealing with communism, was issued Aug. 20.

Nixon said the next Congress should authorize the National Science Foundation to take the leadership in sponsoring the vast new program for basic research.

"By sponsor, I do not mean control, finance and operate," the vice president stressed. "The program should be conducted through a number of basic research institutes located in the principal geographical areas of the country."

"Financial support of these institutions should be as much as possible a joint public and private enterprise with both federal and state governments participating on one hand and universities private industry, and foundations on the other. The federal funds should be made available on a matching basis with state and private contributions."

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Donna roared relentlessly westward today and it appeared that Cuba might be hit by the full force of the killer storm.

The danger to south Florida faded as Donna, with 116 dead in her violent wake, failed to swing into a more northerly path as hurricanes often do in approaching this area.

"It rarely happens but in this case it appears that the storm center might hit the north coast of Cuba," chief storm forecaster Gordon Dunn reported.

"We expect a slight turn to the north but Donna could remain far enough south so that Miami will get off rather easy."

Dunn emphasized, however, that Dade and Broward counties on the lower Florida east coast should continue to keep in close touch with the hurricane advisories. There also remained a possibility that Key West will get a stiff blow, Dunn said.

The hurricane raged through the southeastern Bahama Islands today on its way to the Florida Strait between Cuba and Key West.

Very high tides were forecast for the north coast of central Cuba.

Raging seas were building up in the Bahamas. Tides were expected to reach 12 feet above normal in some places.

There was no word from Mayaguana Island, which apparently took the full force of Donna's 150-mile center winds. Communications to the island went out when the storm hit Wednesday afternoon.

Acklins Island and Crooked Island also were hard hit.

In Nassau, capital of the Bahamas, residents were ordered off the streets and Red Cross emergency stations were set up in all districts.

The rains that took a heavy toll of lives in Puerto Rico continued to pour out of the great storm.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Two Alliance youths have admitted they blasted two unoccupied buildings near Sebring last week to experiment with stolen dynamite, Sheriff Paul J. Langley reported Wednesday night.

The pair was identified as James Orzo, 18, and Keith Reinhardt, 19.

Sheriff Langley said Orzo and Reinhardt and two 20-year-old Alliance youths they said accompanied them—Gary Peck and James Niles—are in Mahoning County jail awaiting charges which may be filed today.

Langley quoted Orzo and Reinhardt as saying they had read about dynamite in magazines and decided to try using some. He said the pair told him they took two-thirds of a case of dynamite from Damon's Chemical Co. in Stark County last week and early Friday morning set out with Peck and Niles to find a target to experiment with it.

The first charge was set off at a cement block house under construction on Lexington Road northeast of Alliance, the sheriff said. He quoted Orzo and Reinhardt as saying they had nothing personal against the owner.

The sheriff said the four youths went back to Alliance and described the blast to friends, then set out again accompanied by a large group of boys.

A storage shed behind an abandoned school on Courtney Road was destroyed by the second blast.

Youths Admit Destroying 2 Buildings

Enrollment in Circleville city schools was 2,885 today, 146 more than attended school the last day of the 1959-60 term.

Figures were announced today by George A. Hartman, superintendent. He said the total enrollment is 15-20 short of what was anticipated.

Big jump came in the high school where there are 660 pupils in the four grades, 9 through 12, as compared with 549 last year.

Hartman reported that there has been difficulty in balancing class size since the elementary schools are crowded.

He reported that the old junior high gym at the high school has been converted to a study hall, but still there are periods when 45-46 pupils have to move into the auditorium for study hall.

Here is the enrollment of the various grades:

Kindergarten 240; First 289; Second 253; Third 248; Fourth 252; Fifth 201; Sixth 265; Seventh 206; Eighth 251; Special Education 20; Ninth 254; Tenth 168; Eleventh 128; Twelfth 110, for a total of 2,885.

U.N. Urged To Halt Flow of Arms To Warring Factions in Congo Area

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld today called for Security Council action to halt the flow of outside aid to warring factions in the Congo.

The call presumably was directed against Soviet military aid, although it might apply also to Belgian arms.

Hammarskjöld also told the 11-nation council in a special post-midnight report that it may be necessary to disarm Congolese military units temporarily since these forces are an obstacle to the re-establishment of law and order.

The secretary general did not say which country was sending

Storm Danger To Florida Starts To Fade

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A neatly executed $50,000 bank holdup by a neatly dressed little gunman who did the job alone and in about three minutes had police working overtime through Wednesday night in a vain effort to pick up the robber's trail.

Shortly before the 2:30 p.m. closing time Wednesday, the 5-foot-5 gunman, his face disguised with adhesive strips, and nattily dressed in a blue straw hat and blue turtleneck, entered the West Tuscarawas and Canton Avenue branch of the Canton National Bank. The branch is on the Lincoln Highway two miles west of Public Square.

The robber approached Cecil Stevenson, operator of the bank's consumer credit office and announced: "This is a stickup."

"You must be kidding," Stevenson answered.

"Well I'm not kidding," the man replied, waving a stubby, black revolver.

The two then moved out of Stevenson's partitioned-off office to a counter between the lobby and the tellers' cages, and Stevenson and Edward Ison, 55, the bank's manager, were instructed to fill a paper shopping bag with bills.

"Just put the green stuff in there," the robber commanded. "I don't want any coins or silver."

Six women tellers and three customers were made to stand against a back wall while Ison and Stevenson carried out the gunman's instructions.

"He was very deliberate," Ison said, "but he did tell us to hurry."

"He ordered me to open one of the vaults, but it was on a time lock and could not be opened until 2:30," Ison said. By that time the gunman was gone, but not before sending Ison to the drive-in window compartment to get more money.

Exact amount of the loot awaited completion of an audit today but Joseph Sommer, president of the bank, said he estimated it at $50,000.

The car which Ison saw the robber drive away was found by police a few minutes later abandoned four blocks away. It had been stolen about noon Wednesday from downtown Canton where its owner parked it with the ignition unlocked.

Detective Capt. Frank Burnosky said several persons reported seeing the bank robber park the car, leap out of it and run off.

"He cut through several yards on Bedford Avenue, carrying a paper sack," Burnosky said. "Personally, I doubt that he had another car."

Jack Campaigns In Far West

'Second-Rate America' Is Labeled Possible

With Kennedy in California (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy whistled stopped his way across critical California today, calling for action to avoid a "second-rate America."

In this water-conscious state Kennedy promised if he is elected president he will launch a crash program of research to convert salt water into fresh.

On another issue prime for Californians, the Democratic nominee fired off a telegram to a meeting of his farm supporters in Indianapolis, Ind.

In it he said, "I regard the agricultural problem as the No. 1 domestic issue facing the nation today and I intend to attack it on a national basis."

Kennedy told Claude Wickard, a former secretary of agriculture, who presided over a Farmers for Kennedy-Johnson session that "American agriculture's economic condition today is desperate."

As in the past, Kennedy did not spell out specifically the remedies he plans to offer.

Budding for the 32 electoral votes of the home state of his GOP rival, Vice President Richard M. Nixon Kennedy bore down critically on what he called the Republican administration's "short sighted" policies of permitting no new starts in hydroelectric power and other projects.

"Today, in a close-knit tumultuous world, the development of our natural resources is not only vital to the survival of our Western states and the survival of our nation, it is vital to the survival of the entire free world," he said in a speech prepared for a stop in Redding.

Kennedy's foray into California was billed as two day affair, mostly by old fashioned campaign train.

Supersonic Missile Plows into Corn Field

SMSON, Ala. (AP)—A super-sonic Hound Dog missile left its course, defied efforts to destroy it and tore a crater in a cornfield. No one was hurt.

The Air Force sent investigators from Eglin AFB, Fla., to gather fragments in an effort to find out why the missile got out of hand.

Rail Union's Offer Shunned By Pennsy

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad today rejected a "rock-bottom" offer from the Transport Workers Union to end a strike which has shut the nation's largest railroad since Sept. 1.

"Upon examination, the so-called 'rock-bottom' proposals made by the striking unions were found to be nothing more than proposals made previously by the unions with slightly different language," James M. Symes, chairman of the railroad board, said in a statement.

President Michael J. Quill of the TWU made the offer for the TWU and the System Federation. About 20,000 members of these unions are on strike.

Neither Quill nor Symes spelled out specifically what the "rock-bottom" offer involved. Quill said only that his proposal covered "a number of important issues," not just those the company has been saying are the only ones blocking settlement.

The railroad's turnaround of Quill's proposal came shortly after Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said in Washington that he has reason to hope for an early settlement. Mitchell told a news conference he had been in close touch with federal mediators handling the strike settlement negotiations in Philadelphia.

Lumumba Plans To Make Vital Decision Soon

Premier Expected To Demand World Group Leave Country

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Premier Patrice Lumumba's press office charged the United Nations with interfering in the Congo's political conflict today and said important decisions concerning the United Nations would be taken tonight.

Lumumba's office put out the statement in the wake of the National Assembly's action Wednesday voiding attempts by the premier and President Joseph Kasavubu to fire each other from their jobs.

The press office communique described the Assembly's action as an annulment of Kasavubu's ouster order.

It also indicated that the premier intends to pursue his policies despite mounting indignation over his acceptance of Soviet aid in the troubled Congo.

"The government confirms that the army and the police have not obeyed the order of the chief of state to lay down their arms," said the communique. "On the contrary, the army and police remain loyal to the republic. The latter has the situation in hand."

The announcement indicated a showdown was at hand with the U. N., which has silenced the Leopoldville radio, and shut down traffic at airfields despite the premier's protests.

It appeared almost certain that Lumumba intended to demand that the U. N. pull its forces out of the Congo.

The U. N., acting under its Security Council mandate, has taken a stronger stand in the past few days to try to avert civil war in Kasai Province where Lumumba's soldiers have been trying to stamp out a secessionist movement with Soviet aid.

Albert Delvaux, Lumumba Cabinet minister who defected to join the Kasavubu ranks, charged in the Senate today that arms had been delivered by Soviet planes to Stanleyville in the northeast Congo.

Soviet planes have also been used to transport Lumumba's soldiers to Luluabourg and Bakwanga the center of his fight with followers of Albert Kalonji who has set up a self-styled Mineral State in Kasai Province, in eastern Congo.

Screaming Congolese senators today barred Lumumba from addressing the Senate.

The Congo could become one of the most dangerous spots in the cold war in view of obvious Soviet insistence on gaining a foothold here.

The Soviet Union is known to have 14 troop-carrying planes in the country already, and has delivered 100 trucks for transporting soldiers and supplies for Lumumba.

Just what quantities of arms and ammunition have been delivered is uncertain.

The tone of today's communique was in sharp contrast to the conciliatory note adopted by Lumumba Wednesday when he called on the assembly to set up a committee to iron out his differences with Kasavubu. The legislature said it would appoint such a committee.

Second Group Plans Probe Of Defectors

WASHINGTON (AP)—A second congressional committee is going to look into the defection of two U.S. code clerks.

A special three-man subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee was formed Wednesday to check on how the Pentagon and Central Intelligence Agency "recruit, screen, re-screen and clear their personnel."

The House Committee on Un-American Activities already had set a hearing for Sept. 16. The group wants to find out how the two turncoats, Bernon F. Mitchell and William H. Martin, got jobs in the first place with the super-secret National Security Agency. The two men charges Tuesday at a Moscow news conference that the United States was threatening world peace.

The Justice Department, in a formal statement late Wednesday, described as erroneous reports that the FBI furnished unfavorable information on the pair to the Defense Department before the two were hired in 1957 by the NSA, a branch of the Pentagon.

Chairman Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., of the Un-American Activities group, said earlier he understood the FBI had informed the NSA before Mitchell and Martin were hired that one of them was a homosexual. He did not identify which of the two he meant.

A Defense Department spokesman said there is nothing in the personnel record of either man indicating homosexuality.

Stock Mart
Prices Stem
New Retreat

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market stemmed a further retreat and displayed a mixed pattern early this afternoon as trading became moderately active.

Gainers and losers were about evenly balanced, with price changes going from fractions to a point or so for most key stocks.

Some specially-situated issues or heavy casualties in Wednesday's selloff moved up a few points.

The market still hungered for some inspiring business news and it was not forthcoming. Nevertheless, trading opportunities seemed more attractive because of the battering taken by prices Tuesday and Wednesday.

Steels, autos, utilities, tobaccos, and nonferrous metals were mostly higher. The tone was generally lower for drugs, spotlighted again by a Washington investigation rails and mail order-retails.

The market was mixed at the opening, settled lower, then firmed as dealings became more active.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .40 to 216.40 with the industrials off .80, the rails off .10 and the utilities off .10.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .15 to 612.42. Corporate bonds were lower. U.S. government bonds were practically at a standstill.

The complaint was investigated by Deputy Homer Adams.

Yosemite Woods Fire

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, Calif. (AP)—Huge Banana-shaped helicopters from the Army went into action today transporting Indian fire fighters to a stubborn 900-acre blaze in the rugged northwest corner of this tourist mecca.

"But it's a tough 900," emphasized ranger John Straten who Wednesday flew over the fire, three miles northeast of San Francisco's Hitch Hetchy Reservoir near Mount Gibson. "All up and down," he said.

We Learn from Tragedy

Occasionally the world suffers a tragedy in which many lives are lost, injured or endangered. Whether the cause of the calamity is natural or human, the suffering by fire, flood, earthquake or storm is alleviated for those who survive by the lessons learned.

Toll of carelessness is indelibly stamped on the minds of those who witness the tragedy, together with the determination that there shall be no repetition.

Last fall, 10,000 persons in Morocco were paralyzed by fuel oil bought in the United States, mixed with vegetable and peanut oils, and sold as a cooking preparation. A chemical in the fuel oil — triortho cresyl phosphate — attacks the nervous system and, while rarely fatal, inflicts a severely crippling paralysis.

A British doctor has discovered, by inducing paralysis in animals with the chemical, that cortisone is an effective antidote. Up to now, no treatment had been found which offered hope for the victims of this terrible mistake. Even now, the cortisome treatment is in its experimental stage, but it was effective in reducing paralysis to a mild state of postural imbalance in test animals, according to Dr. P. Glee of Oxford University.

Where there was none before, there is now hope for the thousands of Moroccans stricken by terrible poison. And, if continued research with cortisone confirms preliminary findings, another antidote will be added to the world's medicine chest.

But not only has a potential remedy been produced, world attention focused on the cause should be insurance against repetition of a serious human error.

One More Trip to Grocery

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—It was Saturday afternoon and Wilbur Peeble, America's most average man, wanted a can of beer.

But as always seemed to happen, he couldn't find a can opener.

"Why don't you go to the store and get one?" suggested Trellis Mae, America's most typical wife. "I'm tired of making unnecessary trips to the store," stormed Wilbur. "My married life has been one long emergency."

"You never keep enough of anything in this house. We're always running out of everything—just no matter what it is, we're fresh when we need it. Whatever I want out of," he complained.

"Well, I tell you, I'm sick and tired of living this way. What we need in this house is a little planning—then we won't have these shortages. I'm going to solve this problem once and for all!"

Wilbur clapped on his hat and left. He banged the front door so loudly the startled cat leaped to the top of an armchair in nervous alarm. But Trellis Mae merely shrugged and went back to making the afghan she had been working on intermittently since 1948.

An hour after that the delivery boys began arriving, and they came in a steady stream for the next two hours.

They brought a case of soap and a case of detergents.

They brought four dozen eggs and 96 electric light bulbs of assorted sizes.

They brought a case containing 1000 rolls of toilet paper.

They brought three boxes of nails, 144 pairs of shoelaces, 12 flashlights, five dozen candles, and six bottles each containing 1000 aspirin tablets.

They brought a dozen cans of talcum powder, 15 packages of adhesive bandages, 50 packets of razor blades, 24 bottles of shaving lotion, 24 cans of push-button shaving cream, 18 tooth brushes and 48 tubes of tooth paste.

They brought 20 cartons of cigarettes, 200 packets of matches and six cases of beer.

They brought three cases of cat food, a case of canned chili, a case of assorted soups, two cases of peanut butter, a case of bottled olives, a case of mustard, five cases of catsup and three cases of sardines and anchovies.

They brought 20 pounds of cheese and 10 pounds of sliced ham.

Trellis Mae had had the boys stack all the purchases in a towering pile in the center of the living room. Soon after Wilbur entered, looking somewhat wilted from his long shopping orgy.

A moment later he said, "I'm hungry, honey. Can you rustle me up a ham and cheese sandwich?"

Trellis Mae went into the kitchen. There was a silence. Then she called:

"Wilbur, do you mind making just one more trip to the grocery store? You forgot the bread. There isn't a slice left in the house."

Hate Is Never Rational

By George Sokolsky

The problem can be stated openly and accurately: Africa has moved out of its colonial period. A large number of independent African nations have come into existence. These nations are being admitted to the United Nations and have seats in the General Assembly. In due course, it is possible that some of these small new nations will be on the Security Council.

What we are dealing with now is that the African continent has thrown off the shackles of European suzerainty. As sovereign members of the United Nations, each of these new Negro nations has a vote in the General Assembly equal to our vote. Will they vote with us or against us? Will they ally themselves to the United States or to Soviet Russia? Will they buy American goods or goods from the Soviet Universal State? These are the pertinent questions of the moment.

Across this problem runs another, a particular domestic problem of the United States. To suggest that there is no discrimination against Negroes in the United States is to lie about the obvious. The discrimination is different in different parts of the country, but it exists. It can be documented. It is constantly being defended by those who believe that it is a correct position to take. It is constantly being attacked by those who object to it. It comes into our courts and even the Supreme Court of the United States renders decisions on the subject.

There are several hundred years of tradition on all sides of this question. And there are those citizens who resent intermarriage and the concept of a mulatto America. And there are many, particularly politicians, who dare not take a stand on this question — that is, for quotation.

Nevertheless, today we face it as a sharp question that cannot readily be postponed. Shall we be overwhelmed in the United Nations by a colored majority or shall we have the United Nations because we have become a minority — a minority on a racial issue? And how can we sustain our position on the racial issue with about 15,000,000 Negroes in the United States and some of them holding the political balance of power in such states as New York, Illinois, and Pennsylvania?

Experts Vary On Prospects For Recession

But Many Executives
Take Same Measures
As If It Existed

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Business spokesmen differ as to whether a recession is under way or in the offing or unlikely. But many executives appear to be taking the same measures now they would if an actual one were here.

They are cutting inventories to a minimum. They are holding up new orders. They are trimming payrolls. They are giving price concessions to hold customers. They are clipping overhead costs at every opportunity.

Slipping sales volume has inspired some of the belt tightening. But in many cases the spur has come from dropping profit margins. Rising operating costs have turned record sales into smaller net income. And management is going after those higher costs.

The slowdown in ordering and the trend to lower inventories has put a crimp in the output of several basic industries—one of the few signs so far that anyone could point to as foretelling a recession.

Some of the cost cutting is hailed as trimming away corporate head fat that crept onto corporate muscles during the lush days that followed the 1957-58 recession and again during the rebound from the steel strike. And some cost cutting is long range, aimed at installing more efficient machinery in more economical plants.

But some economists warn that hasty cost cutting can cause more trouble for a company than it cures.

For example, care has to be taken in laying off workers. You may lose a skilled man altogether, one you would sorely miss later. And also you would lose the cost of training a man and have to start all over when you rehire. Too, layoffs or salary trimming can hurt morale and sometimes lead to a bigger loss in the long run.

A favorite cost-cutting device in slow times is to drop less profitable market areas and customers who add little to your total earnings. This often pays off in higher profits. But here care must be taken. There is the loss of the investment in building up the potential market and also the question of whether it might later turn into a very profitable one.

Many business managements are weighing these procedures. As profit margins drop, corporate accountants study salesmen's expense accounts very closely. Some firms are buying tourist tickets on planes instead of first-class tickets.

Purchasing agents are under pressure to get the lowest possible price for needed materials—

Pastor Held After Fatal Snake Incident

NASHVILLE, Ga. (AP) — The preacher of a church where a man received a fatal rattler bite during a snake-handling ceremony has been arrested under a 20-year-old state law which could bring the death penalty.

The Rev. Charles H. Hall of the New River Free Holiness church in rural Berrien County was arrested Saturday and put under $10,000 bond.

Sheriff Walter Gaskins said he also issued a warrant for the arrest of Harmon Hatfield on the same charge.

Hatfield is a friend of Lloyd B. Hill, who died Aug. 28 after being bitten during a snake-handling ritual.

Hatfield brought one of two snakes used in the service from his home in Alabama, Gaskins said.

Hill's wife was quoted by law enforcement authorities as saying her husband had been bitten nine times by snakes in earlier ceremonies.

Solicitor General Ben T. Wiloughby of Homerville said evidence collected in a five-county investigation will be presented to the jury when it meets Sept. 26, been prevalent in the area for many years.

Juanita Hinton Becomes Bride of William Schleich

MRS. WILLIAM LEONARD SCHLEICH

Miss Juanita Louise Hinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hinton, Route 4, became the bride of Mr. William Leonard Schleich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schleich, Williamsport at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, in the St. Paul EUB Church, Stoutsville. The Rev. Charles Jenkins officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church altar was banked with five palms, two baskets of flowers and candelabras on each side.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Emmett Hinton, was attired in a gown fashioned of chantilly type lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a portrait neckline jeweled with iridescents and seed pearls. The bouffant skirt (floor length) featured front ruffles alternatingly of lace and tulle. Her finger tip veil of illusion was held by a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of the valley. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings a gift of the groom.

The maid of honor was Miss Mary Kay Wood. She wore an afternoon length gown of shrimp color with scooped neckline and a full skirt of silk organza over taffeta with a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Toni Agin and Miss Judy Hinton (sister of the bride) were the bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in aqua gowns fashioned identical to the maid of honor. They wore matching circular veils held by half hats trimmed with iridescents. The maid of honor was the same. They carried bouquets of white carnations and wore necklaces, a gift of the bride. The flower girl was Diane Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cook, Williamsport.

John Dearth, Williamsport, was best man and Larry Stant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Stant, Whisler, was ring bearer. Ushers were: James and Gary Hinton, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a dress of white lace over beige taffeta with beige accessories. Her corsage was red rose buds. The groom's mother wore a dress of printed lace over grey satin with black accessories and a corsage of red rose buds.

A reception was held in the church annex following the wedding. The five tiered wedding cake was surrounded with yellow carnations and greenery with silver candle holders. The hostesses were: Mrs. Vernon Bolender, Lockbourne, aunt; Mrs. Donald Cook, Williamsport, cousin; Mrs. Alfred Edens and Mrs. Clara Vaughn, both of Londonderry and aunts of the bride.

The bride's going away costume was a charcoal two piece dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated by Pickaway Twp. High School, Nationwide Beauty Academy in Columbus and is now employed at Graciles Carousel of Beauty in Circleville.

The groom was graduated by Williamsport High School, served four years in the Air Force and is employed at the DuPont Co. The new couple will reside in Williamsport after a wedding trip through Texas and Kansas.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Start Looking Elsewhere

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow who is having a difficult time deciding what to do. I am 47 (no children, and am very much in love with a widower who is 50. His wife passed away two years ago and his mother moved into his home to care for his 12-year-old son.

Abby, this man says he really loves me, but he doesn't want to get married until his son is on his own. This will mean waiting 8 or 9 years. I can't see this at all. Why should I just "go around" with him for 8 or 9 years? I tried to explain that his son needs a mother, but he says his mother fills that need. I can't sleep for thinking how wonderful life would be as his wife. Should I wait and hope he changes his mind? Or do you think he ever will?

DEAR "TO WAIT OR NOT": If you want a husband, find yourself a man who wants a wife NOW. This man wants only a woman to "go around with". Wait at your own risk.

DEAR ABBY: I work in an office. We moved because we're expanding and need more space. The boss had a tank of goldfish in our first office. We were hoping he'd give them up when we moved but he didn't.

We girls have to feed them, change the water and keep the tank clean. This is a terrible chore. He travels all the time, isn't interested in the fish and never looks at them. So why does he insist on having them around? (I wish we could get rid of them "quietly").

Congressional Candidates To Get Briefing

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All Ohio congressional candidates — Republicans and Democrats alike — will get a top-level briefing Sept. 19 on Ohio's part of the interstate highway program.

Four planes will pick up the 46 congressional aspirants and deliver them to Akron for the seminar which will be conducted at Akron and Mansfield.

The briefing is being arranged by the Highway Department and the Ohio Citizens Committee. Federal Highway Administrator Bertam Tallamy will be on hand for the session.

In announcing the non-partisan session, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle explained it is intended primarily to acquaint Ohio congressmen and candidates with the importance of federal aid to Ohio's over-all highway program.

"One of the most important problems which the next Congress will need to solve," DiSalle said, "is how to keep the interstate highway program moving on schedule. Since the problem is of such special interest to Ohio, we want to be certain that Ohio congressmen and candidates have a complete picture of the scope of the Ohio highway program and problems."

Chairman of the seminar will be Joseph B. Hall chairman of the board of the Kroger Co. and president of the Ohio Citizens Highway Committee.

DiSalle's announcement said no public funds are being used for the seminar.

Damage to Trousers Is Greater than Theft

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—It wasn't just losing the money which bothered Bobby Miyoshi, 38, when a thief took $34 from him on a Denver street. Miyoshi told police the man crept up from behind, put the knife at his throat then used it to cut out the seat of his trousers to get the money from his pocket.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Skies were mostly clear over Ohio during the early morning hours today with warmer temperatures. Early morning readings: Toledo 60, Chesapeake 68, Cleveland 66, Columbus and Cincinnati 67.

On the morning weather map high pressure covered the southeastern portion of the country. A weak cold front extended from the upper Great Lakes to Kansas and Hurricane Donna centered 400 miles east-southeast of Miami, Fla.

The high pressure over the southeastern states is controlling the Ohio weather, sending a stream of tropical air over the state. Mostly sunny skies and hot temperatures will prevail today. Tonight will be fair and warm.

The next rainfall is not expected before late Saturday.

Cincinnati Drowns

CINCINNATI (AP)—John Chafin, 27, of Cincinnati drowned Wednesday in the Little Miami River near Newtown. The body was recovered several hours later.

CHS Mates Cook, Valentine Guide Madison High Gridders

Two former Circleville athletes currently hold important coaching positions at Mansfield Madison High School.

Jim Cook and John Valentine, Circleville teammates in football, basketball, and baseball are in the midst of molding what could be a surprisingly strong Madison grid squad.

Cook, the head football coach at Madison, went there from Maumee, O. where he posted a fine record in two seasons as the headmaster. He took over the Madison reigns in 1958 and produced a rugged club which won eight of nine games.

In 1959 the Rams slipped to a 3-6 mark due mostly to overweight in key line positions. This season Madison will be a much smaller and compact ball club but with greater speed which could make the difference.

IN FULLBACK Joe Rice, the Rams have one of the area's hardest-hitting line blasters and the passing of Quarterback Chuck Ludwig adds balance. Rice, a junior, split the fullback assignment with Larry Howell in '59 but has sole possession of the job now. Rice is a chunky 5-8, 208-pounder with good straight-away speed. Howell (6-0, 192) has been moved to right halfback.

Up front, Tackles Barry Ferguson and Joe Kimmel along with 1959 All-Ohio mention Center Larry Kurek, give the Rams plenty of experience. Kimmel played at 235 last year but has pared his weight to 195 and is moving well. Ferguson is a converted guard and has speed to go with his 172 pounds.

The guards will be small with Bob Ohi, the number one right guard, the heaviest at 154. Cook has the utmost confidence in these two, however, and in Doyle Niemann, a 144-pound replacement.

Valentine, in his second season at Madison, is the head line coach and also serves as head wrestling mentor, with Cook his assistant.

Valentine is a graduate of Bowling Green State University where he was a top notch center after making All-Ohio honors as a fullback at Circleville.

Cook shifted from a high school halfback position to right end while an undergraduate at Denison where he also played basketball.

MADISON is an up and coming football power and has constructed a fine elementary school sports program. Cook and Valentine are witnessing the first crop of elementary fruit who will play as sophomores this season.

Madison plays a tough 10-game season opening with Galion September 9 and for the first time will compete in the newly organized Cardinal Conference with Ashland, Wooster and Dover. The Confer-

CHS To Face Several Vets

Paint Valley QB Is Able Passer

Circleville's football Tigers will face several enemy lettermen in tomorrow night's season opener at Paint Valley.

Leading the Bearcats probably will be Mac Vore, a veteran quarterback who likes to do a lot of passing. Other veterans are Backfielders John Depoy and Ron and Bob Cooper. The Ross Countians also have several returning linemen.

Last year the Tigers blasted the Paint Valley eleven, 34-16, in the first meeting of the two schools. It was the Bearcats' first year of varsity football, but it is assumed they will have a more solid team this season.

Vore was the spark in last year's game as he passed 17 times and completed seven. He also was a capable runner.

THE Paint Valley School is located southwest of Chillicothe on Route 50 near Bainbridge. The best route to follow is south on Route 23 to Chillicothe, then turn right on Route 50.

Coach Carl Benhase will put his Tigers through their final workouts today in preparation for the trip tomorrow.

Coach Benhase hasn't announced his starting lineup, but players expected to see plenty of service include Ends Jake Bailey and Alex Cook, Tackles Bruce Dresbach and Vern Reichmanus, Centers Steve Helwagen and Danny Moffitt, Guards Gary Harrison, Jim Anderson and Tom Bivens, Quarterbacks Pat Rooney and Bob Waple, Halfbacks Phil Wing, Chuck McDowell and Freddie Moore and Fullback Rupert Rudd.

The Tigers will be without the services of Left Halfback Garold Dade and Tackle Clession Thomas as due to injuries. Dade suffered a head blow in the Groveport scrimmage and Thomas is sidelined with an infected leg bruise.

The CHS force currently operates with three units — the offensive-minded "Go-Tigers", the defensive specialist "Bengals" and the two-way players billed as the "Streamlin' Demons".

Circleville will open its home season next Friday when the Bulldogs of Athens come here.

ence hopes to expand in the future. Cook's first offensive and defensive squads are solid at present. Barring injuries the 1960 team should win the majority of its games.

Here is the Madison schedule: Sept. 9 — at Galion; Sept. 17 — Bucyrus; Sept. 24 — Mt. Vernon; Oct. 1 — Akron North (Homecoming); Oct. 7 — at Ashland; Oct. 14 — at Dover; Oct. 22 — Crestwood; Oct. 29 — Wooster; Nov. 5 — Dayton Kiser; Nov. 11 — at Shelby.

STOPPER FOR YANKS—The Yanks have come up with a new relief star, 33-year-old Luis Arroyo, brought up from Jersey City of the International league three weeks ago. Arroyo, who has been in baseball for many years, may be the key to the Yankee pennant chances.

Liston Gets Nod, But Grumbles

SEATTLE (AP)—Sonny Liston of Philadelphia was a disappointed fighter today although he had proven a few hours earlier that he was better than the second best heavyweight contender—Edie Machen of Portland.

Weighing 211 pounds to Machen's 196, Liston pursued the agile Machen for 12 rounds Wednesday night and caught up just of ten enough to score a unanimous, but close, decision in the nationally televised fight.

Dunkel Top Man In Bowling Loop

Charles Dunkel's 202 was high individual single score in Early Wednesday Night bowling at Circle D Recreation.

Dunkel, rolling for the Circle D team, also had high series with 564 pins.

High team single game went to Circleville Metal on 950 pins. The metal team also had high team series with 2,663.

Booster Club Plans Coffee, Doughnuts at CHS Grid Tilts

A plan for a coffee and doughnuts concession at Circleville Home football games was a main item of discussion at a meeting of the CHS Booster Club at Benny's Restaurant last night.

Club officers and directors decided to operate at two locations near the gridiron. They also discussed the possibility of having junior high gridders help distribute the coffee and doughnuts through the bleachers.

President Ralph Starkey and Membership Committee Chairman Charles Hart commended Boosters, coaches and players for the excellent work in Saturday's Commercial and individual Member Drive.

Hart said almost $800 was collected in the first effort. Area merchants who were not contacted Saturday, but who wish to become members may do so by contacting any Booster officer or director.

DATES for Booster sponsored athletic banquets also were discussed. Action on the matter was tabled until the next meeting.

The group agreed that dedication of new junior high football uniforms purchased by the Booster Club will be conducted during the Athens game, scheduled here September 16.

Director Hart reported that a basket of fruit and nuts was purchased for CHS Tackle Clession Thomas who was admitted to Berger Hospital during the weekend for an infected leg bruise.

President Starkey said special Booster meetings may be called prior to the next regular session if required.

Reds Go Hard For 4th Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This could be a do-or-die night for the Jersey City Reds in their battle for the International League's final playoff spot.

The Reds, still a half game back of Buffalo, send Brooks Lawrence against Richmond while the Bisons are idle, having played one more game. A JC victory would give both teams a 76-74 record while a loss would throw the Reds a full game back in fifth place with four games to play.

The Reds beat Richmond 4-2 Wednesday night but Buffalo handled Montreal 7-4. Columbus just about nailed down sixth place with a 3-2 victory over Miami while pennant-winner Toronto lost in 10 innings to Rochester, 8-5.

Howie Nunn held Richmond hitless from the second through the sixth inning. Andres Ayon took over here and didn't allow a base hit the rest of the way.

Buffalo scored twice in each of the last three innings to help wind up Montreal's home season amidst speculation that the parent Los Angeles Dodgers will move the team to Atlanta, Ga. next season.

Reliever Don Dobrino scored the first Circleville run after a triple, then singled home the go-ahead run in an inning later to beat Miami. He allowed only two hits from the second to the seventh in relief. Jim Umbrecht finished up.

40 New Ohio Cities Named In '60 Census

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — Out side of a few borderline cases, the number of new Ohio cities produced by the 1960 census will be 40, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown estimated.

Franklin — Hilliards, Reynoldsburg and Westerville.

Lorain — Amherst, Avon, Avon Lake and Sheffield Lake.

Others — Belpre, Washington County; Crestline Crawford County; Eaton, Preble County; Greenfield, Highland County; Hubbard, Trumbull County; Huron, Erie County; Lebanon, Warren County; Louisville, Stark County; Newton Falls, Trumbull County; North Canton Stark County; Perrysburg, Wood County; Rittman, Wayne County; Shadyside, Belmont County; Stow, Summit County; Sylvania, Lucas County and Willard, Huron County.

Marion Army Depot Cutback Said Certain

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group from Marion, Ohio, has apparently lost out on its appeal to the Army not to curtail operations at the Marion Army Engineer Depot.

Dr. Robert Brown, Marion superintendent of schools, said Courtney Johnson, assistant secretary of the Army, indicated that the decision to curtail the operations would not be reversed. However, Brown said, Johnson told him that no further layoffs would take place until the end of the year.

Brown, a leader of the 10-man delegation told a reporter, "We're going to make every effort to get the decision reversed. We're going to get to work on this immediately." He said the delegation remains hopeful that some way can be found to get the decision reversed, despite Johnson's inflexibility.

Brown said Johnson cited economy, a regrouping of the Army's service forces and a lack of troop housing as behind the curtailment move.

"We are not satisfied with his arguments," Brown said, "particularly the economy angle."

Brown said the depot is the second largest source of income for Marion, with a payroll of $4.5 million last year. He said the depot now employs about 800 persons, and Army plans are to reduce this to about 40, mainly caretaker maintenance personnel.

C of C Course To Open Again

The Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce yesterday proposed formation of new classes for the Action Course in Practical Politics.

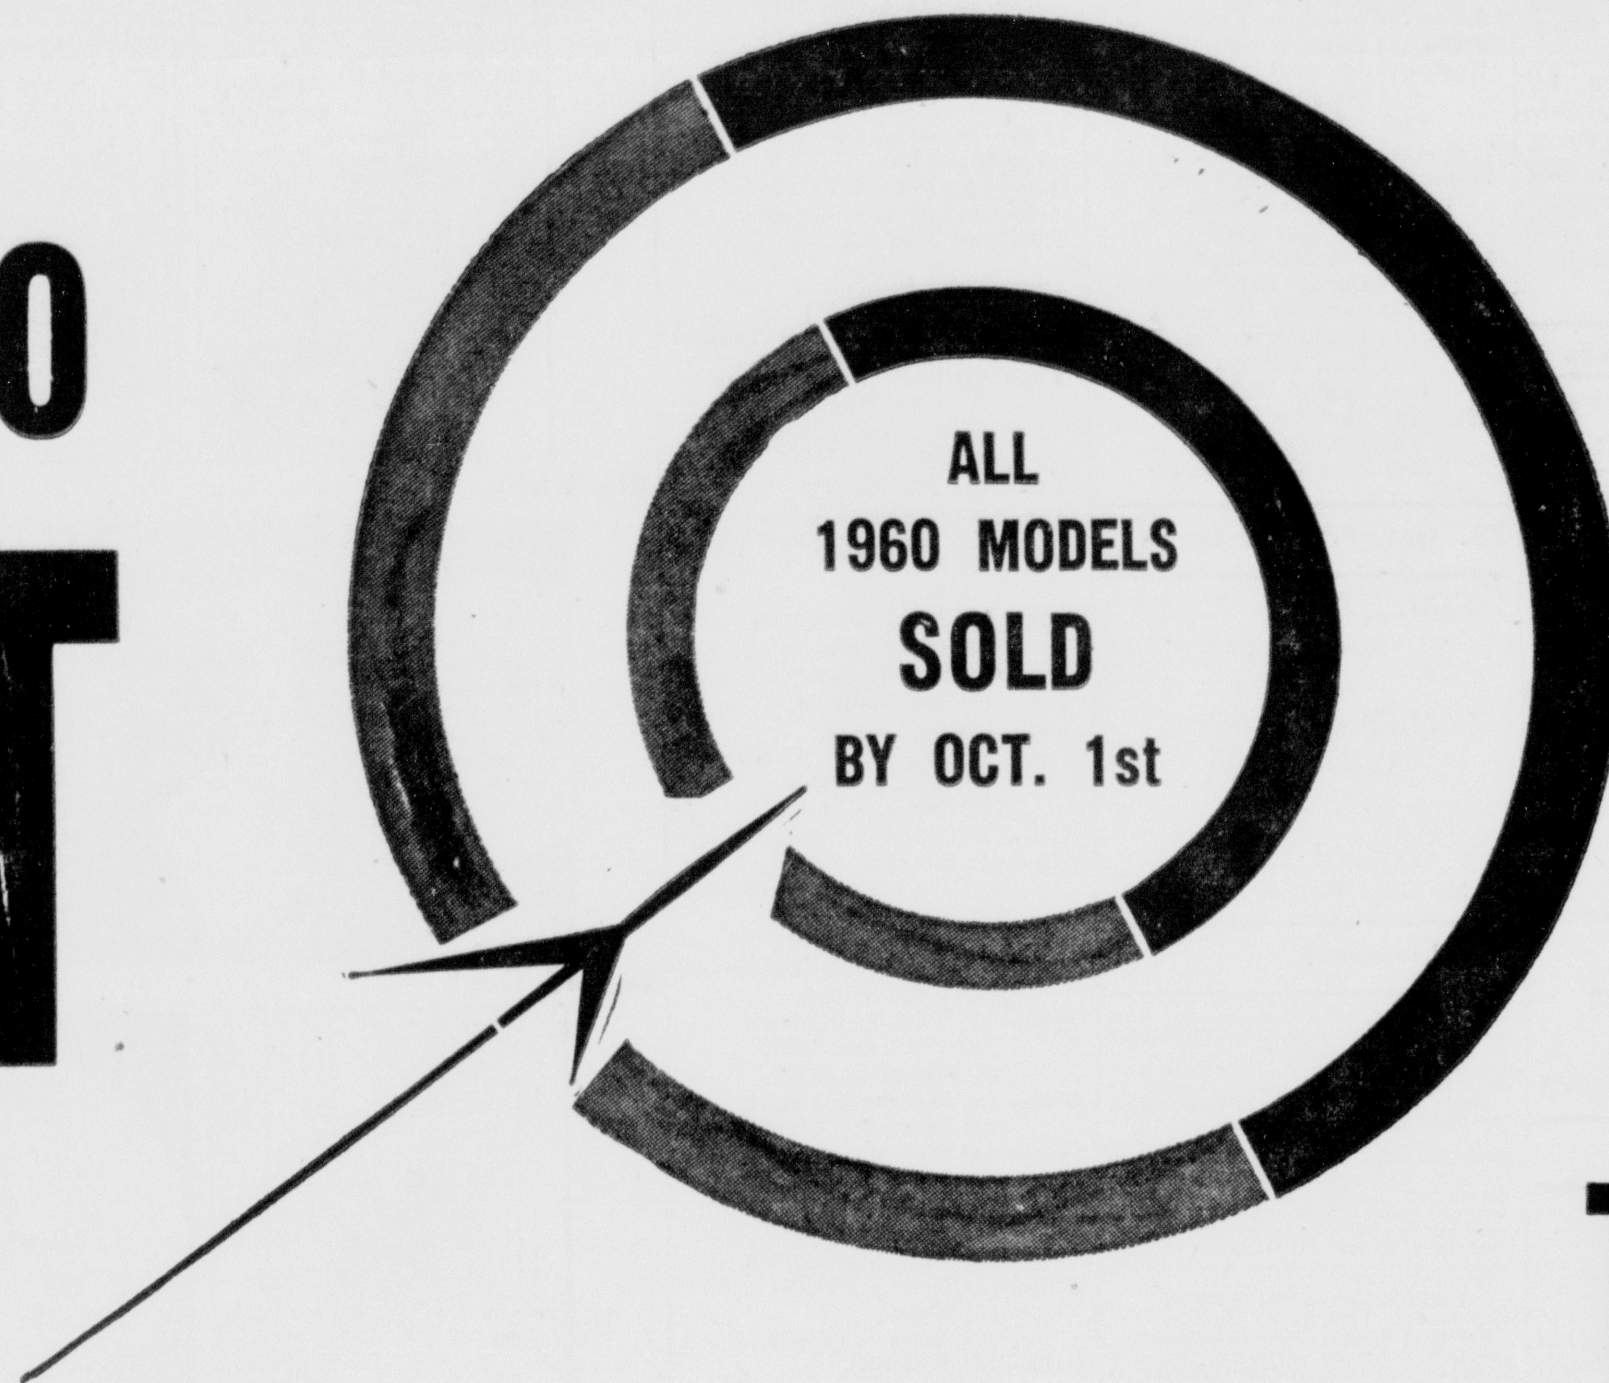

The nine-week course was taken last spring by two groups, members of the C of C board and members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

It is a non-partisan course, designed to acquaint Americans with the function and worth of party politics. Classes of from 10-14 persons will be organized. Meeting times will be set later.

Those interested should call Darrell Hatfield, executive secretary of the Chamber, GR 4-6294.
